Wildlife Review, published six times per year, serves to alert wildlife biologists to current worldwide wildlife/natural resource literature. Citations are taken selectively from over 1300 journals and periodicals. In addition, reference to more than 500 books and symposia proceedings concerning wildlife and natural resources is included annually. All citations are comprehensively cross-referenced in separate Author, Geographic, Subject, and Systematic indexes. Authors who publish in journals not screened for Wildlife Review are encouraged to submit reprints to the Editor.

The National Biological Survey assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of material from outside sources.

A current awareness index to wildlife and related literature.

As the Nation's principal conservation agency, the Department of the Interior has responsibility for most of our nationally owned public lands and natural resources. This includes fostering the wisest use of our land and water resources, protecting our fish and wildlife, and providing for the enjoyment of life through outdoor recreation. The Department assesses our energy and mineral resources and works to assure that their development is in the best interests of all our people. The Department also has a major responsibility for American Indian reservation communities and for people who live in island territories under U. S. administration.
